1941 SPRING CLEAN-UP SALE
Glads at 1/2 to 1/4 Regular Prices

COLONIAL GARDENS, INC.
RUSHFORD, MINN.

Planting time is here again and we are eagerly looking forward to blooming season. Last year, ideal growing conditions in our part of the country resulted in a bumper crop of large bulbs, even bulblets producing large bulbs in many instances. We sincerely believe that this list represents 1941's BIGGEST GLAD BARGAINS, and with war conditions increasing production costs, we doubt if these bargains will be duplicated for many years, indeed if ever. Our good fortune becomes yours when you order from this list.

Flower lovers are beginning to really appreciate what an all-around flower the gladiolus is with its wide range of colors and blooming season extending from early July until frost. We invite you to visit our fields, and suggest that August is the peak of the season.
